We have shown P that we are going after it. We mean business and have the Standard equipment to get it with. Driller J. W. Dietzel believes that when we get it it will be under great pressure.

A railroad is now ready to lay its rails into the field! Twenty companies await the first news of OlL at Merger! Think what oil means to the great transportation lines traversing Nevada. It costs more per barrel to bring oil by rail to haul the transcontinental train over the divide than the oil costs at the California fields. Get that, It's the kernel in the nut.
